

Hakim X lies so boldly that the Red Star takes notice

Written by Barthélemy Barbancourt
Friday, 26 June 2009 09:08 -

Minneapolis has the pleasure of sending a Muslim to congress. Our pet Muslim has a long history of dishonesty. The Red Star usually prints any lie that rolls from Hakim's tongue, but apparently he has gone too far this time.

For some background not reported, Hakim took a trip to Mecca last year and lied and said that the trip was personal and that he paid for it himself. The Red Star dutifully reported this lie although many had serious questions about Hakim's statements.

This year Hakim got busted when he listed his true benefactors, Muslim American Society of Minnesota. Now Hakim is trying to hide the details of his trip for reasons unknown.

... Ellison should quickly release all available details about a fall 2008 trip he took to Mecca courtesy of the Muslim American Society of Minnesota.

Ellison's office has maintained that the Mecca trip was "personal," but it also says the Ethics Committee is revisiting the question of whether the costs must be reported.

Hakim X, who occasionally used his despised Christian name of Keith Ellison to appease the infadels that elected his sorry ass, has major problems with the definition of personal. He also has major issues with honesty and fidelity. Remember that he was sued by his ex-mistress, but the liberal judges in Minneapolis helped wipe away the stain of his infidelity, his parking tickets and the allegations of abuse. (Everyone that his shocked that a black Muslim would cheat on his wife and beat another women, please raise your hands!)

Never fear, the liberal morons in Minneapolis will continue to support this lying scumbag because he is so very, very much like them. You see they all think that they are better than everyone else and some rules shouldn't apply to them. They see their lying selves in the the Scumbag Hakim and they like it.